A word from Tycho's owner, Pat Jones: From early puppyhood Tycho has always wanted to work with me. He's eager to train whatever venue I choose – be it tracking, obedience, or field. Highly skilled in each venue having attained his TDX (Tracking Dog Excellent) at 18 months, his UDX and OBHF at 3 Years and is 2/3 of the way to his OTCH. He's earned 29 Master Hunter passes with a very high pass rate. Enthusiasm, style, and ability have brought high praise and compliments from tracking, obedience, and hunt test judges. He is very fast and literally ran both his TD and TDX tests. In field work he runs out fast and comes back just. His marking is excellent, and he is a team player when we run blinds. He has his own style of returning with the bird by backing up into heel position. This often brings chuckles from the judges and gallery.

Siggy is OFA Excellent Hips and like Tycho, she is free of all currently known genetic mutations for the golden retriever. Siggy has healthy skin and is allergy free. Siggy is biddable with a high drive in the field. Golden retrievers are flushers, but Siggy points upland. I appreciate the time to shoulder my gun. Some of our owners appreciate this too. It's never been an issue for waterfowl or a testing scenario. Siggy has a stable temperament and friendly disposition to all. She engages well with people of all ages, dogs, and cats. Despite surviving a dog attack when she was 17 weeks old, she has zero dog aggression or fear. Other than the physical scars on her face and a damaged tear duct, you would never know by meeting her or seeing her work. We attribute this to her stable nature. She's a joy to take to the line in a hunt test. She has good focus, high drive, and style. Her built in off switch also comes with lots of snuggles and a chill attitude in the house. Her offspring have earned titles in Scent work, Rally, Hunt Test, AKC Temperament Test, and AKC Fetch.

Just as important, he has an appropriate temperament and gets along great with dogs and people. While we watch TV, he joins us on the couch for snuggle-time. He travels well which is vital since we drive to field or obedience training several days a week in addition to traveling to weekend events. We have had some wonderful, talented Golden retrievers but Tycho is even surpassing them and becoming our best dog ever.
