Holly is a happy, eager to please golden. This team player is highly biddable and loves training as much as hunting. She has a stable and joyful temperament with a friendly disposition to all. She engages well with people of all ages, other dogs, and cats.

Holly is a joy to take to the line in a hunt test as well as into the field for a real hunt. She has good focus, high drive, and style. Her built in off switch also comes with lots of snuggles and a chill attitude in the house. An excellent mother, her offspring have share in her joyous, biddable nature.

A word from Tycho's owner, Pat Jones: From early puppyhood Tycho has always wanted to work with me. He's eager to train whatever venue I choose – be it tracking, obedience, or field. Highly skilled in each venue having attained his TDX (Tracking Dog Excellent) at 18 months, his UDX and OBHF at 3 Years and is 2/3 of the way to his OTCH. He's earned 35 Master Hunter passes with a very high pass rate. Enthusiasm, style, and ability have brought high praise and compliments from tracking, obedience, and hunt test judges. He is very fast and literally ran both his TD and TDX tests. In field work he runs out fast and comes back just. His marking is excellent, and he is a team player when we run blinds. He has his own style of returning with the bird by backing up into heel position. This often brings chuckles from the judges and gallery. Just as important, he has an appropriate temperament and gets along great with dogs and people. While we watch TV, he joins us on the couch for snuggle-time. He travels well which is vital since we drive to field or obedience training several days a week in addition to traveling to weekend events. We have had some wonderful, talented Golden retrievers but Tycho is even surpassing them and becoming our best dog ever.
